NEUSUSTRUM Krs. Aschendorf/Huemmling Brit. Zone K 53/V 67

Add: 1940 nearly 1600 Poles arrived from Polish prisons. In 1943 approx. 450 Frenchmen and Belgians were housed here, inmates of French and Belgian jails. In 1942—43 60 Jews from other camps were also here. Most of the foreigners left the camp in 1944, only a few Poles remained. From 1944 the main part of the camp consisted of German civ. and military offenders. Inmates worked on peat cutting and drainage of surrounding bogs under the direction of the Government Moor Administration Neusustrum. The camp supplied inmates for drafts to "Kdo. X" in France in Oct. 1943 and Jan. 1944.
(The Emsland Case, Brit. War Crimes Group).

See also NEUSUSTRUM, Volume I, page 102.

DOERPEN/WALCHUM Krs. Aschendorf/Huemmling Brit. Zone K 53/V 78—68

Add: Until 1941 the inmates were Germans only, from 1941 onwards of various nationalities. In Nov. 1943 the camp held approx. 1000 Germans, 100 Poles and 50 Czechs; in autumn 1944 approx. 500 Germans and a few French and Czech prisoners. From 1942 onwards the inmates included civilian offenders against war time laws. Camp inmates were employed as peat cutters and on drainage of surrounding bogs.
(The Emsland Case, Brit. War Crimes Group).

See also DOERPEN, page 101 and WALCHUM, page 102 of Volume I.

ASCHENDORFER MOOR Krs. Aschendorf/Huemmling Brit. Zone K 54/V 79

Add: WDP. Inmates worked on peat cutting and drainage for Government Moor Administration Boergermoor.
Camp II supplied inmates for the drafts to Norway in 1942 and to "Kdo X" in France in Oct. 1943, Jan. 1944 and April 1944 (The Emsland Case, Brit. War Crimes Group).

See also ASCHENDORFER MOOR, Volume I, page 101.

PAPENBURG Krs. Aschendorf/Huemmling Brit. Zone K 54/V 79

Add: When the first penal camps were founded in 1923, model farms were introduced, the labour being supplied by the prisoners. In the Emsland area, the small moors had to be drained before cultivation, this was undertaken by the "Wasserbauleitung", which employed prisoners from Camp VII. Cultivation was under the direction of the Moor Administration Emsland, which controlled the Moor administration of Boergermoor, Aschendorfer Moor, Rhederfeld and Neusustrum.

Until 1940, the penal camps were classed as Zuchthaus and the inmates were mainly German "Sicherungsverwahrte", usually habitual criminals. LINGEN prison acted as a receiving centre and the prisoners were distributed from there to the various camps.

After 1940 Military offenders were sent to the camps and from 1941 onwards, foreigners, Poles, Czechs, Dutch and Belgians were arriving.

At the beginning of the war Camps VI, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII, XIII, XIV and XV were handed over to the Army as PoW camps.
(The Emsland Case, Brit. War Crimes Group).

See also PAPENBURG, Volume I, page 103.

BOERGERMOOR Krs. Aschendorf/Huemmling Brit. Zone K 54/V 89

Add: In 1933 about 1000 Germans were here, all political suspects. In 1941 the population consisted of German criminals, some Czechs and Poles. Later it was used for all inmates of the various camps up to 20 years of age. From 1942 onwards civilian offenders against war time laws were housed there. In 1943 the strength was about 1200, mainly Germans, some French, Czechs and Poles. Inmates worked with the "Government Moor Administration", cultivating fields. In 1942 Camp I provided men for the draft going to Norway. In Oct. 1943 the Camp also furnished men for the draft to "Kdo. X", which went to Calais and in Jan. and Apr. 1944 men for further drafts to France under "Kdo. X", to Samer.

NEUENGAMME Hamburg area Brit. Zone L 54/S 64

Concentration Camp Neuengamme.

A total of 95500 pris. went through this camp. 13500 of them were female pris. Within the camp the pris. were employed in various firms:

Vereinigte Metallwerke	guns prod.	900 pris.
D.A.W.-Deutsche Ausruestungs-Werke	items for the Navy	1300 pris.
Jasram Motoren-Torpedorohre-Werke	reconstruction	300 pris.
Messapp-Deutsche Messapparate GmbH.	park for bombs	150 pris.
DEST- Deutsche Erd- u. Steinwerke, Klinkerwerk Neuengamme	brick prod.	600 pris.

In 1940 the camp had a strength of 2000 pris. On 10. 4. 45 there were 13500 pris. in the main camp, 2500 male and 10300 female pris. in the Aussenkommandos. (Report of the Vatican Mission).

The Allied forces coming nearer, Neuengamme and most of the Kdos. were evacuated to the North-East in direction of the „Neustaedter Bucht". From 14. 4. 45 onwards the "Cap Arcona" had been lying anchored in the bay of Neustadt. On 27. 4. 45 the "Athen" arrived with 2500 prisoners from CC Mittelbau and CC Neuengamme on board. She stopped at the "Cap Arcona", who took over these prisoners. Next day a second transport of 2500 prisoners was brought to the "Cap Arcona". After that, the "Athen" sailed once more to Luebeck. She arrived in the bay of Neustadt on 29. 4. 45, with 3000 prisoners on board and anchored near the "Cap Arcona". Later the "Thielbeck" appeared with 2500 prisoners on board and anchored 800 yards away from the "Cap Arcona". On May 2nd 1945 the "Athen" raised anchor and sailed to the harbour of Neustadt. In the early morning of May 3rd, 1945, about 1200 prisoners from CC Stutthof arrived in Neustadt, in three barges towed by tugboats "Adler" and "Bussard". Having fastened the barges to the "Thielbeck", the guards climbed into the tugboats and went off. The prisoners later cut the ropes and moved off towards Neustadt. They landed in the neighbourhood of Neustadt and most of them took shelter in the suburbs of the town. About 150 prisoners, however, were shot by the SS while trying to escape. At 15 hrs. on May 3rd, 1945, RAF Typhoons appeared, and in less than one hour "Cap Arcona", "Deutschland" and "Thielbeck" were sunk. On board of these three ships were roughly 7500 people and only 500 were saved. The "Athen" landed her passengers, but later was accidentally set on fire. It is not certain that there were prisoners on board the "Deutschland" (Lt. Col. Christopher; 2nd officer of the "Cap Arcona" and Buergermeister of Neustadt).

CC Neuengamme was liberated on 4. 5. 45 (British Zone Division ITS).

PASSAU Krs. Passau US Zone N 49/Q 21

Add: CC Kdo. of Mauthausen: "Waldwerke" near Passau was established in April 1944, with 100 Mauthausen prisoners, Russians, French, Poles, Belgians and Germans, billeted at first in wooden barracks in Lindau, suburb of Passau. In September 1944 the prisoners were transferred to the newly built camp. They were employed in the factory Waldwerke. The camp was closed in October 1944 (VVN Passau).
The prisoners of the CC Kdo. Mauthausen-Oberilzmuehle were working at the beginning of 1943 with a firm which was engaged in turbine construction for obtaining electrical power from the Danube.
In January 1945, 10 men were sent to Passau-Auerbach to dig out bombs.
In March 1945 a Kdo. of 14 men was sent from Mauthausen to unload a barge.
Both these Kdos. were billeted in Oberilzmuehle (Tracing officer's report).
Abbreviations: Pa for Passau
WA for Waldwerke
W for Passau II (Mauthausen daily change reports).

FLOSSENBUERG Krs. Neustadt a. d. Waldnaab US Zone N 50/P 33

Concentration Camp Flossenbuerg was established in May 1938 as a camp of punishment. The first inmates were German civilian criminals, frist mentioned 2. 5. 38 (Flossenbuerg entry register). On 5. 4. 1940 the first transport of foreigners of various nationalities arrived, some of them being Poles, Czechs, Russians and German political prisoners. In 1941 a new camp was established inside the Flossenbuerg camp, for Russian PoW's, to hold about 2000 men. At first the camp was for men only, on 7. 1. 43 the first female pris. are mentioned in Kdo. Neurohlau (Flossenbuerg strength reports).
Flossenbuerg camp was evacuated on 20th of April 1945. After the SS had destroyed most of the papers and documents of the camp, about 14000 prisoners left Flossenbuerg, guarded by SS and camp police. On 23. 4. 1945 the camp was liberated by the US-Army (US War Crimes Commission).
In the camp, inmates were employed by the firm Messerschmidt AG, Kdo. "2004" from 22. 12. 44 onwards, on 13. 4. 44 = 2029 prisoners and by the DEST with an average strength of 1500 pris.
(Flossenbuerg change of strength report).

OHRDRUF Krs. Gotha Russ. Zone M 51/J 06

Add: CC Kdo. of Buchenwald. Inmates worked on railway construction, as the German high command had started the project of installing a chief communication center in the basement of the castle of Dr. Muehlberg at Ohrdruf. In order to do this the prisoners of the CC Kdo. of Buchenwald had to connect the castle with the main railroad line and to dig tunnels, which were to be used as emergency shelter for the train which contained Hitler's HQ-Fuehrerhauptquartier. In April 1945 the Fuehrertrain was at Oberhof, south of Crawinkel. The prisoners of the Kdo. Ohrdruf, the so-called Kdo. S III were housed in the north and south camp of the Military camp and were taken to the site every morning. Strength of S-III on 24. 12. 44: Nordlager 4837 pris., Suedlager 5718 pris. The connection of the railroad and the communication center was not completed due to the advance of the American troops. Eight thousand evacuated inmates of the Ohrdruf camps arrived in Buchenwald in April 1945, a few days before the liberation of Buchenwald. (War Crimes Commission; Preliminary Report on Buchenwald).

Add: CC. Kdo of Gross-Rosen. This Kdo. of Gross-Rosen was situated in Kretschamberg, a fortified place for the Air Force in the woods, 2—3 kms. from Kittlitztreben. The camp contained more than 2000 male Jews, chiefly from Hungary. The dead were cremated in Gross-Rosen. In order to fill the gaps, a transport of pris. was brought weekly from Bunzlau, Auschwitz and Z.A.L. Goerlitz. In April 43 Z.A.L. Goerlitz was transferred to Kittlitztreben. In summer 44 a transport of Hungarian Jews arrived from Auschwitz with 300 persons fit for work. After 3 weeks a transport of 150 sick pers. was sent to Auschwitz to be cremated. Other camps also sent transports of pers. fit for work and received in exchange sick pers. to be cremated. The camp was evacuated on 5. 2. 45. 800 sick men remained and were liberated by Soviet troops (former [inmate).
