Concentration Camp Neuengamme, in Hamburg-Neuengamme, Hausdeich 60, reestablished as an independent CC on 4. 6. 40 (Photocopies of Gestapo files Duesseldorf). This CC had to provide with slave labor the armament factories of Northwestern Germany, North of Buchenwald territory. Towards the end of April 45, the camp was evacuated, mostly towards Luebeck where the inmates were brought on board the ships "Cap Arcona", "Thielbeck", "Athena", together with prisoners evacuated from other CC's, mainly Stutthof. A total of about 10000 prisoners were on board the three ships, when an air attack on 3. 5. 45 sank two of them, the "Cap Arcona" and the "Thielbeck" (various reports of former CC inmates present at the catastrophe).

The Emsland Group:

The Reichsministry of Justice had set up prison camps in the Emsland area as early as 1923. In 1934, concentration camps were established in Boergermoor and Esterwegen; then, a large scale plan was worked out for the utilization of the moors around, and towards South of Papenburg. The whole system of camps was put under the administration of the Papenburg "Strafgefingenenlager", and in 1939 the existing or proposed camps received numbers I—XV. Afterwards however, only the "Strafgefingenenlager", were administered by the Papenburg prison, the concentration camps came under the CC Neuengamme administration, the PoW camps came under the various "Stalags"

The Administration of the project "Wueste" was situated here. There is a bituminous lime area between Dautmergen, Erzingen, Frommern, Schoerzingen and Zepfenhan; in order to speed up crude oil production, a project "Wueste" was designed in 1943 under a certain Geilenberg, as the "Reichskommissar fuer dringliche Angelegenheiten" with the participation of the following organisations:

DOELF — Deutsche Oelschiefer Forschungsgesellschaft, for scientific research and planning;
 DBHG — Deutsche Bergwerks & Huettenbau AG, for industrial equipment;
 OT — Organisation Todt, as construction contractor and furnishing forced labour and civilian manpower;
 SS — furnishing CC manpower.

The first shipments of CC inmates arrived in Febr. 44 in the area; in Aug. 44, new shipments poured in, without preparations for proper lodging and feeding. Conditions, therefore, became particularly bad and a great percentage of the prisoners perished in the camps: Schoenberg, Schoerzingen, Dautmergen, Dormettingen and Bisingen. The deaths, which are registered, are found in the Schoenberg registrar's office. (Bulletin "Charnier de Schoenberg" by the "Section Francaise et des Recherches" of the French Supreme Command in Germany).

Localities further away from Buchenwald were served by so-called "Aussenkommandos", i. e. work details under the same disciplinary rule and the same supervision as in main CCs. One of the Buchenwald Kdos., Dora Mittelbau, became so large that it was eventually made an independent main camp. Other Aussenkdos. formerly administered by Buchenwald were transferred to this Dora- or Nordhausen group (see p. 248, Dora). On the other hand, the Concentration Camp Niederhagen was reclassified and became the Buchenwald Kdo. Wewelsburg. Another small independent concentration camp, Sachsenburg, was closed and the 430 inmates transferred to Buchenwald in December 1937.

Industries within or comparatively near to the main camp were supplied with manpower from the main camp itself. The pris. working in these plants had to be present at the morning and evening "Appell" (roll-call). In emergency cases where absence from "Appell" was inevitable, the administrative office set up a special temporary "Aussenkdo." for such pris., excluding them from the general roll-call. Many such "Aussenkdos." were set up in Buchenwald as a result of air-raids in the vicinity. In Weimar, Gustloffwerke I and the household of the "Reichsstatthalter" were the only permanent Buchenwald Aussenkdos.

Among the invoices of manpower distributed, the following institutions and enterprises occur most frequently, giving only occasional daily strength reports or none at all:

Deutsche Ausruestungswerke GmbH., Weimar-Buchenwald, abbreviation: DAW, over 1000 pris.
Bischoff, Wilhelm, Weimar, for Kdo. "Luftschutzbauten" — Kdo. of air-raid shelter construction, about 15 prisoners.

Dietrich & Hermann, Weimar, Marienstr. 14, 2 prisoners.

 Koeditz, Maurermeister, for "Bunkerbau" — air-raid shelter construction for "Gefangenen-Barackenbau" — pris. barracks.
 "Kuehlhaus" construction of refrigeration chambers.
 "Lager 29" for the "Zentral-Ersatzteillager" — Central spare parts magazine, about 70 pris.
 Mitteldeutsche Baugemeinschaft Buchenwald:

   for "Kdo. Schneider und Schuhmacher" — tailors and shoemakers up to 1200 prisoners, for "Werkstatt K Staffel" — work shop K squad.
 Reichsbahnbetriebsamt Weimar, about 40 pris.

 and many other administrative offices using the prisoners as slave labourers (Buchenwald invoices). On 28. 2. 45, the serial number of the prisoners reached 133000 (Buchenwald entry registers). The camp was liberated on 13. 4. 45.

DORA:

CCKdo. of Buchenwald. First there was a Kdo. "Dora" established in Salza/Harz on 27. 8. 43, which steadily increased its strength from 3000 in Sept. 43 to 12000 in Jan. 44 and kept this average strength until May 44. In the spring of this year, other independent Kdos. were established in the vicinity: Kdo. Anhydrit in Harzungen on 1. 4. 44, Kdo. B 11 in Niedersachswerfen on 12. 5. 44 (former inmate of Buchenwald Schreibstube), then in May: Kdos. A 5 and B 4 in Rottleberode, Kdo. Nordhaeuser Maschinenfabrik in Nordhausen/Harz. In this same period, the Baubrigades began to assemble: Baubrigade 1 moved to Sollstedt, Baubrigade 3 to the neighbourhood of Wieda, Baubrigade 4 to Ellrich, Baubrigade 5 to "Sonderst. Schmalschlaeger", the exact geographical location of which could not yet be determined. On 8. 7. 44 the Kdo. Fliegerhorst Nordhausen was set up, on 25. 8. 44 the Kdo. Klosterwerk in Blankenburg, and on 28. 9. 44 the Kdo. Curt Heber in Osterode (Buchenwald invoices).

At first, these Kdos. reported separately to Buchenwald, but in Aug. 44 a consolidation of the smaller Kdos. with the main Kdo. Dora in Salza, near Nordhausen, Thuringia began. The first to be assimilated was Fliegerhorst Kommandantur Nordhausen on 7. 8. 44, followed by Nordhaeuser Maschinenfabrik and B 11 Niedersachswerfen. On 28. 10. 44 all the remaining Kdos. were placed under the administration of Dora. At the same time Dora was separated from Buchenwald and declared an independent camp (Buchenwald daily strength reports and original census of prisoners, transferred from the administration of Buchenwald to that of the newly established main camp Dora).

The purpose of the whole organisation was the construction of underground factories and the production of V-bombs: Wifo — Wirtschaftsforschungsgesellschaft, which worked through the subsidiary Mittelwerke GmbH. and subcontractors such as O.T. — Organisation Todt, Sonderinspektion Halle II and various construction firms. Some units bore WIFO "Kostenstelle" expense account code numbers. The following could be located:

- B 11 — Gipswerk, Niedersachswerfen,
- B 12 — Baubrigade 4, Ellrich,
- B 13 — Baubrigade 3, Nuexei, Osterhagen, Mackenrode etc.,

- B 15 — SS-Fuehrungsstab B 15, SS-Ustuf. Dabel, Halle a. d. Salle II, Postschliessfach 1504,
